THE BATTLE OF SANTA ROSA. PULL PARTICULARS.

Pensacola, October 9.-An expedition of ,100 men, under Brigadier-General Runnels ossed over to the island this morning, about two o'clock. At twenty minutes past fout the first gun was fired, and in fortyx minutes all that was left of the numer as camps and immense commissary buildings was a mass of smouldering ruins. The hospital ructure is the only building now on the island Wilson's camp was the first reached; its sen tinels were either killed or captured, and the command, with its redoubtable chief, found sufey in inglorious flight beyond the eastern walls

The scenes when this camp was first invaded are represented as ludicrous, beyond belief. The colouel took to his book, with nothing but a brief skirted shirt to conceal his nakedness; and be tween him and his braves no horter or closes mtested struggle ever occurred over the Mag ia-the Bull Run was nothing in comparison Our men, pursued them with a determination ever excelled in history, pausing for a moment dy, new and then, to fire a building or camp, strive bome a "rat tail" in the large guns that i them at almost every step.
